Large Ensembles – Performers may appear in more than one ensemble in a section, but there must not be more than a 40% overlap between ensembles.

Small Ensembles – A Performer may participate in up to three ensembles using the same instrument in the same section, but not more. A Performer may participate in more sections, however, but with a different instrument.

Notes

These sections are non-competitive and offer the perfect introduction to eisteddfod performance without the pressure of competition. Performers gain confidence and valuable performance experience in front of a warm and appreciative audience. The experience will greatly assist Performers to prepare for future music festivals, eisteddfods, concerts, exams and auditions.

† See Rule No. 5 regarding AMEB grade or equivalent standard, page 12.

All Performers will receive a detailed Adjudicator's report to assist them in perfecting their music, the same way as performers do in the competitive sections. The Adjudicator will also provide feedback with a mini master class.

Performers may choose more than one piece, provided that the total playing time does not exceed the time limit.

Please note that only one piano will be available. String, Wind and Vocal performers are strongly encouraged to perform accompanied by piano or another single acoustic instrument but may perform unaccompanied if the music selected was written to be performed unaccompanied.

✱ The Official Accompanist is free of charge during your Mini Recital. Performing with the Official Accompanist is optional – you may choose to perform with your own accompanist or perform unaccompanied! If you would like to book the Official Accompanist, please do so through Stardom no later than 2 weeks prior to Mini Recitals Day, and please forward a copy of your sheet music with accompaniment to the Accompanist. (Private rehearsals may be organised directly with the Accompanist at the Performer's own cost. Rehearsal opportunities will be made available on the morning of the Mini Recitals Day, so book early!)

2. The Festival is open to amateurs only. An amateur is one who does not derive regular income from the art in which he/she is entering.
3. The age of Performers will be as at the 1st of August 2025 as calculated from their date of birth. The ages of all members of an ensemble must be within the age group for the section entered.
4. Current students, past students from the previous year, immediate relatives, or close associates of Adjudicators in 2025 are not eligible to enter any solo sections their teacher, relative or associate is adjudicating.
5. The AMEB Grade (or equivalent) is the level at which the Performer is studying at time of competition. Performers can only enter one AMEB Graded section for each Discipline. Please verify with your music teacher that the "grade" of the piece to be performed is equivalent to the specified AMEB grade of the section to be entered to ensure fairness of competition.
6. All entries must be via www.stardom.com.au. Entry fee payment must be made by credit card. See www.monashyouthmusicfestival.com.au for details.
7. ENTRIES CLOSE for each section as soon as that section reaches capacity, and all remaining sections will close on 9 June 2025. Registrars cannot accept entries for sections beyond that section's limit. Registrars do not keep wait lists. No late entries will be accepted.
8. Where a Performer is entering more than one section, a different piece of music must be performed for each section.
9. No entry fee will be refunded unless a section is cancelled. Please select your sections carefully and check your dates and select sections before entering this Festival.

11. Pre-recorded accompaniment is not accepted in any section. Soloists performing with accompaniment must have an accompanist using a single acoustic instrument (e.g. piano or guitar).
12. Choral leaders/conductors are not permitted to sing with their choir.
13. Performers requiring the Official Accompanist must contact the Accompanist and supply sheet music to the Accompanist at least 2 weeks prior to the Festival. The Accompanist reserves the right to decline to accompany if this condition is not met. The cost of the Official Accompanist for your performance is included in the Festival entry fee. If a Performer's music requires accompaniment, the Adjudicator may penalise the competitor for performing without an accompanist.
14. A Notice of Appearance with date, time and venue will be sent to the Performer. Where multiple Performers are entered into Stardom on the one form, the one making the entry must forward the Notice of Appearance to each Performer. Every performer must come to the Festival well prepared and must comply with these rules.
